REVIEWS REPUBLICAN RULE

In the State, and Contrasts It With the Shameful Outrages Perpetrated Upon the Taxpayers by Past Democratic Administrations - Clear Outline of Public Affairs in West

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer. CHARLESTON, W. Vu., July 11.— Hon, Albert B. White accepted the nomination of governor on the Republican state ticket in the following comprehensive and ringing speech:

FELLOW REPUBLICANS:-In ac cepting this nomination, which you have so generously and with such unanimity and heartiness tendered in-I wish to express my sincere thanks for the high honor conferred. The great compliment pald in making me the standard bearer of the Republican party in the state campaign now upon us mere words to express. But it is not the honor or the compliment that the nomination is accepted. It is a call to duty by a great party at a time in the history of the politics of our state when the importance of securing victory at the polls is so great that every loval Republican and well wisher of to me, should subordinate his personal wishes to the general good and units in the election of the Republican

The issues are now made up and the political parties have enunciated their national and state platforms and placed their standard bearers in the field.

The Republican party appeals to the electors of the nation upon a platform adopted at Philadelphia which is a clear-cut exposition of our party's position on the great issues of the day. I need not discuss these general issues at time and place, in view of the splendid and thorough presentation of these matters by Senator Elkins and the other speakers who have preceded

Nothing to Say About State Matters.

My distinguished compatitor, a man for whom I have a high personal regard, in his speech accepting the Demo-cratic nomination for governor, had not a word to say about state matters or policies affecting this great common-His theme was imperialism and the "sunless and shoreless sea" upon which the ship of state, he averred was sailing. It seems to me proper that in the few words to be said by me at this time, I should discuss matters concerning our own state.

The importance of the election this fall to the Republican party of this ate cannot be overstated.

I heartily accept and endorse the tform of principles adopted by this ivention and stand squarely upon it. The plank against the removal or agliation for removal of located state insti-tutions and buildings meets with my unqualified endorsement and is in entire harmony with my personal views for many years past.

The platform expresses right views as to the so-called "Virginia debt" question, and, if elected, my official acts will be in harmony with the position therein taken.

I also specially commend what is said as to the necessity for a fair and equitable apportionment of the state for legislative and congressional purposes And this brings me to what I conside are the leading issues of our state campaign; fair apportionment, houest elsetions and no more post-election frauds and count-outs.

Outrageous Democratic Gerrymander. 1891, passed by the Democratic legislature of that year, the Republican party is so handicapped in the election of a and disfranchisement of Republican countles, that we practically lose the cans. effective strength of 10 per cent of our These Democrats were Deleunder our constitution must apportion the state for election of members of the legislature, under the census of 1900, to remain as apportioned for the next ten ture to do this work in the interests of fair play. We ask for no undu advantage over our political opponents. We insist that a Republican's vote should weigh as much as a Democrat's. We ask for a just and equitable apportionment, one which will disfranchise no county because of its politics and which will not aim to make ten out of thirteen senatorial districts Democratic by gerrymanders, which violate the spirit as well as the letter of our state constitution. We can judge from the past what sort of apportionment a Democratic legislature would make Remember Republicans, that no matrageous that apportionment may be it licans of this state are entitled to fair They do not get it under the existing legislative apportionment and it is their duty of supreme importance to see that the legislature elected this fall is Republican in both branches. The apportionment of the state for years to come is more important in my judgment than the election of a governor or a United States senator, test of loyalty of Republicans in this state this year is hearty support of the every district.

Should Draw the Veil of Silence. The Democratic state platform makes an alleged recital of the contest over the centrol of the legislature of 1893 and has something to say about "trampfoot," and refers to the case of Senator that our Democratic friends should contest of 1898. What I have to say is and with no desire to reflect upon the honor and integrity of the rank and file of the Democratic party. The great majority of the voters of this state, in all parties, want to do and are trying to do what they believe to be right. The prople want honest elections and an honest determination of the results thereof.

But what has been the record of the Democratic party under its recent leadership and for the past decade in our state? Who is it that has "trampled the law and the constitution under ernor in 1888 or was he not? Answer can be but one answer to that question.

It took the Republican party eight long years to outgrow the count-out of members with an outraged sense of unfairness the unseating of Newton Ogdin, elected from the Fourth senatorial district; the refusal to sent Anthony Smith, who held certificates of election from the same, the Fourth, senatorial district; the counting out of Warren Miller, elected a supreme judge in 1892; the counting/out of S. G. Smith, elected to the house of delegates from Ohio county; the cases of the three Repub-Hean congressional candidates who were compelled to contest before Congress in 1888 for their rights. But these matters our political friends say are of the past-ten to twelve years ago. We forgive, but self-preservation demands that we do not forget.

What of the Past and Present. But what of the immediate past and present? I ask in all truth and earnestness, who has been "trampling the law and constitution under foot?"

When the polls closed in 1898 the elec-Under the gerrymander of the act of tion returns showed that the Republi-891, passed by the Democratic legisla- cans had the legislature by a majority of SEVEN on joint ballot, the senate standing seventeen Republicans to legislature, by unfair apportionment nine Democrats, and the house thirtysix Democrats to thirty-five Republi-

Discusses the Via Case

I shall not discuss these cases length. Via, of Monroe, was declared The important issue of the campaign by the circuit court to be elected, after a careful recount of all disputed ballots, His Democratic competitor took tion of a Republican legislature, which, the case by writ of error to the supreme court, and, refusing to agree to prompt hearing, it went over until after the legislature had adjourned, when years. We want a Republican legisla- the case was withdrawn by the Democrats and dismissed in the suprem court, leaving the judgment of the circult court and the Democratic election commissioners of Monroe county absolutely unchallenged. Via's name wa he was promptly unseated and without a recount of the ballots, which were in the custody of the clerk of the su Logan was seated and "the law and constitution" trampled upon.

Dunnington's majority in the Lewis Webster district was eighteen, according to the election returns. A felona was evidently committed in county after the first count and before the recount, and Talbot gained forty three votes in Webster, received the certificate of election, and "under orms of law" served as a member of the house of delegates. The case of Brohard, from Taylor county, forms one of the blackest pages in our political history. A grand jury, composed of Republicans and Demo crats, has since the legislature adjourned unanimously found that a felony was committed and a "purple blue pencil" in the hands of a criminal had changed votes enough in precinct after precinct to wipe out Brohard's eightyone majority and give his Democratic opponent a fraudulent majority of thirty-two Dare Not Defend the Brohard Steal Not a Democrat in West Virginia can be found to-day who dare defend the steal of Brohard's seat and yet he was seated by the Democratic house of delegates The secretary of state, acting under a decision handed down by President Brannon, of the supreme court, who decided that Brohard was entitled to a certificate of election placed Brobard's name on the roll of the house. He served five days, or until January 16, when the resolution reported by the majority of the commit tee on privileges and elections was adopted, which provided, 't'hat pending such investigation and determina tion of the title to the said seat, neither Humphrey F. Brohard nor W. R. Dent be permitted to participate in the proceedings of the house." From that date until the admission and qualification of Dent, on February 14, (nearly t month later), neither Brohard nor Dent was recognized as a member entitled to participate in the proceedings of the

Now let us consider the o Now let us consider the one case of Senator Kidd, whom our Democratic friends have seen fit to make a marty: and to immortalize in their platform. The total vote in the Fourth senator-lal district was 14,286 and the five counties returned an apparent plurality for Senator Kidd over his competitor. Mr. Morris, of 141, the vote standing 7,022 to Six Per Cent of Total Vote.

Among these counties was Wood county with a total vote of about 6,500, but in which there were 356 votes rejected on the count, under the peculiar provisions of our election law, for one irregularity or another. This was SIX PER CENT of the total vote—an enormous and 'unusual amount of retected PER CENT of the total vote—an enormous and unusual amount of rejected bailots. Some of these ballots were not counted because only one election elerk had signed his name on the back instead of both of them! Wood county is strongly Republican and here were more disputed ballots than necessary to whe out Kidd's plurality twice over! Able counsel claimed there was good ground for a contest and that most of the ballots in dispute ought to be counted under the broad provision of the law as to the intent of the voter. Counsel, within ten days after the election, and months before it was known or could be known that the Democrats were going to unseat Brohard and Via, and long before the theft of Dunnington's certificate, prepared notice of contest which was served in due time and which set out certain irregularities of election and the large number of ballots not count and the large number of ballots not counted the care of the counted and the large number of ballots not counted and the large number of the counted and the cou and which set out certain irregularitic of election and the large number of ballots not counted, and, if their contention was borne out by the contest claimed a majority for Morris over Kidd of 163-vates.

When the legislature met and the determination of secretain Democratified to attempt to elect a Unite States senator was recealed, the feel my was a blet but the large was recealed, the feel my was a blet but the large was the content of the large was been as the large was the large wa

ris' counsel asked was a recount of Wood county's rejected ballots—dropping all other disputed ballots and irregularities.

To the honor of such Democratic leaders as Senator Faulkner and ex-Senators Davis and Camden, be it said right here and at this point that they conceded the right of the Republicans to elect a United States senator, and took no part in the effort to "trample the law and constitution under foot."

Democratic Conspiracy Unfolded.

Democratic Conspiracy Unfolded.

The Republicans saw member after member of their party in the house unsected and the Democratic conspiracy unfolded in all its hideouspess. But not until one week after the house had acted on the Brohard case did they act in the senate on the Kidd case. January 16 the house declared both Brohard (Rep.), and Dent, (Dem.), nor entitled to act until a final decision in the Taylor county case. On January 23 the senate scated Mr. Morris on his contest, "nending the final disposition of the said contest." Brohard was allowed to at five days and Kidd Jweley.

committee on privileges and elections, by a majority report, declared that Dent, (Dem.), was elected and that he be at once qualified.

Before that report was acted upon, a "treaty of peace" was agreed to and by unanimous vote of, both houses, in separate session, on January 25, the Taylor county case was set to be determined in the house on February 7, and in the senate Morris, (Rep.), who had been senate Morris, (Rep.), who had been seated the day before, who mas taken as was taken by the house January 16—nine days before—namely, that "pending the distribution of such contest, neither said Morris nor said Kidd shall ling the determination of such contest, neither said Morris nor said Kidd shall be entitled to vote or sit as a member of this body." February 7 was set also in the senate for determining the Kidd-Morris case.

On that same day, January 25, Hon. N. B. Scott, in joint session of the legislature was elected United States senator by a vote of forty-eight for Scott, forty-six for McGraw and one for Goff. Had, the people's will as expressed at the polls been carried out without any post-election frauds or legislative unsatting, the vote would have stood Scott, fifty-one, Goff one, McGraw forty-five, On a contest and careful hearing in the United States senate Senator ing in the United States senate Senator Scott, by a vote of fifty-two to three, was declared to be legally elected. The Democratic conspiracy had falled.

Conclusion of Kidd Case. Now to a conclusion of the Kidd cas-Now to a conclusion of the Kidd case. Those 388 disputed or rejected ballots from Wood county were canvassed by the senate committee. There were found to be 196, which Morris was entitled to have counted for him: 126 which Kidd was entitled to have counted for him; and 64 which no one was entitled to receive, the intent of the voter not being ascertainable. This made a gain of seventy votes for Morris, but left Kidd seventy-one majority in the district, dropping all other contentions and leregularities. The committee and Irregularities. The committee thereupon unanimously reported Mr. Klidd, as entitled to the seat and a Re-publican senate unanimously re-seated

In the house, however, the Democrats on the same day, February 7, through thely elections committee reported, in spite of the known felony, that Dent was enfitted to the sent over Brohard and by a party vote set their seal of approval on the greatest felony ever committed in our state—and solely for the purpose of helping the contesting and desperate Democratic leader in his "contest" or "protest" before the United Sintes senate

ted States senate
Which neted the nobler part? Which acted the nobler part? The Republican state senate or the Demo-cratic house of delegates in the two contested cases before them of Dent vs. Brohard in the house and Morris vs. Klad in the senate? Is not the answer seen in the humilating position Mr. Dent was placed in? He know he was Dent was placed in? He knew he was not elected and though voted in on Feb-ruary 7th he walted until the 14th be-fore he mustered up "nerve" enough to qualify and only did it then as a "party polessing.

Put an End to Frauds. Put an End to Frauds.

Fellow citizens of West Virgicia! Let us put an end to these post-election frauds and count-outs. They strike at the very foundations of a republican form of government. The Republican party in this state has suffered much; it has endured much; it will do anything for the peace and honor of our state and the perpetuity of its institutions. We want a fair election, an honest count and a peaceable determinations. honest count and a peaceable determination of the results. If our Democratic friends win, though by a hair-breadth, the victory is theirs and we will gracefully yield. But we are equally determined that West Virginia shall not be Goebelized and the earnest appeal of Governor Taylor, of Kentucky, written last March in response to the resolutions of our. Republican State League, finds an answer and an echo in all our hearts. We ask only fair play, a fair election, a fair apportionment, an equal weight to every vote, an honest determination of the results of the election and then, if it is our victory, we demand the right to enjoy it and will have it. The Democratic state platform attacke the present state administration and accuses it of extravagant appropriations and bad management. At their state convention the last Democratic governor of the state was with great reluctance from some permitted to make a speech in which he delivered himself of a bitter attack on the present state administration.

This was to be expected of one who in the character of Dr. Jekyli called loudly, as chief executive of the state, for a tariff on coal against his party's policy; and in a recent speech before the board of trade of Newark, N. J.
made a partiolic plea for expansion and the retention of the Philippines, against his party's platform; and more recently still protested against the disfranchisement of the colored vote of the south, against his party's record. To relastate himself in the good graces of his party has papeared as Mr. Hyde at their state convention and challenged a comparison between his administration and the present one. If ever folly waited on opportunity it was when the last Democratic governor spoke at the Parkersburg convention. If some things are said which are not pleasant to say, if the curtain is to be raised on a disgraceful chapter in our state history, if is because Dr. Jekyli gave way to Mr.
Hyde!

Let us talk briefly of what Republi-

Did Not Belong to the State.
Of this $1,100,000 that they took Treas
orier Kendall's receipt for, $400,000 wa railroad money belonging to the coun ties, districts and, municipalities. It di not belong to the state and should hav It did not belong to the state and should have been distributed before they went out of office. Another $300,000 bylonged to the irreducible school fund, and another hig silce to this general school fund-none of which was uvaliable for general purposes nor could it have been used to pay the contingent expenses of the state. They left, as I, said before, a practical deficiency and an empty treas-ury.

And how much greater the deficiency would have been had not Governor MacCorkle's administration received in (1855-8154,000 of money from the United States government, being the refund of the war tax collected during the war from West Virginia under Governor Boreman's administration: A Republican administration of thirty years back saved the MacCorkle administration from absolute bankruptcy except as it "borrowed" from the other state funds. And then there were absolute "shortages" in one office, that of secretary of state, of over $30,000 and the defrauding of a number of state depositories of nible moneys of thousands of dollars by a holding-in process of a trusted clork in the state transmers office.

My word for it that when Secretary Dawson turns over his office is will be found that every dollar has been honessly accounted for, and when Transmer Keidall turns over his office no scandal will follow his departure.

Administration Has a Surplus. And how much greater the deficiency revenues, arising from increased valua-tions or increased taxes, but from close collections and effective economies.

The real estate has not been increased in valuation so that taxes could be levied upon it as yet, since 1891. But the value of personal property shrunk enormously as a result of the last national Democratic administration and its ruinous free trade ideas and tariff policies. The story of the hard times from 1893 to 1897 need hardly be told. It is too awful and too fresh in our minds to need but a reference. But let us see how it affected the Republican administration which came into power in this state in March, 1897, and with which ex-Governor MacCoride woold compare his administration. The figures I now give will interest the farmers of our state, I am sure.

Will Interest the Farmers.

Will Interest the Farmers.

Will Interest the Farmers.

Value of cattle in West Virginia in 1893, 45,676,266; value of cattle in West Virginia in 1893, 45,676,266; value of cattle in West Virginia in 1897, 45,684,633. Decrease, 18 per cent, $991,633.

Value of horses and mules in West Virginia in 1893, $7,401,671; value of horses and mules in West Virginia in 1897, $5,08,316. Decrease, 30 per cent, $2,296,356.

Value of sheep in West Virginia in 1893, $1,088,780; value of sheep in West Virginia in 1893, $1,088,780; value of sheep in West Virginia in 1893, $1,088,780; value of sheep in West Virginia in 1897, $6,427, Decrease, over 40 per cent, $444,413.

Then take the railroads. In the spring of 1897 the railroads of the state were nearly all of them on the verge of bankruptey and three-fourths of them were in the hands of receivers. There was also a big falling off in the taxes derived from saloons and the liquoi traffic, as many had been forced out of business by hard times. So the Republican administration came into power actually with less available revenues from taxation than when MacCorkle took his sent in 1893, and neither the legislature of 1837 nor 1899 passed any revenue measures.

By enforcing the collection of fines

By enforcing the collection of fines for misdemeanors, which go to the general school fund, we increased the receipts from that source nearly 50 per recepts from that source nearly 30 per cent in one year.

By compelling the commissioners who were delinquent to settle for the money received from the sale of waste, delinquent or unappropriated lands, which spoes to the irreducible school fund, we added $50,000 to that fund in one year; and in the last two years have added another $100,000 to the large amounts added by us in the first two years to the irreducible school fund. This fund now exceeds $1,000,000, and the Democrats added only $20,000 a year on an average to this fund, as against on an average to this fund, as against our nearly $50,000 a year. Million Doliars in the Treasury.

There is over $1,000,000 in cash in the trensury now, drawing interest, including the uninvested portion of the irre-

ing the uninvested portion of the Irreducible school fund; and of this amount there is over $200,000 in cash in the general or state fund, available at once, and every obligation is paid to date.

Does this look like a wasteful or extravagant administration? Is it not a matter of pride to us all, Democrats and Republicans and men of all parties, that we have a state without a debt; a state with a surplus; a state that is building up under the present administration institutions like the asylum for incurables and the Girl's industrial Home; erecting new buildings at the West Virginia reform school; building and establishing the several miners' hospitals; putting up a great state university buildings; a state administration that has strengthened and,
developed every institution of learning,
in the state and opened a new one for,
colored youth at Bluefield; that has so administered its high-trust that every institution of charity, philanthropy and education under its control is doing more work and better than ever before, in its history? Have we not reason to more work and better than ever before in its history? Have we not reason to be proud of an administration that has done and is doing these things?

State Expanding and Growing. Our state is expanding and growing and our public institutions with it. Under our abounding prosperity West 'lirginia is developing amazingly and all her public institutions are enlarg-ing. If the Democratic party objects to the Increased appropriations passed by the Democratic house of 1899 and the Republican senate of that year, let the Democratic house of 1839 and the Republican senate of that year, let them come out into the open like men and say to what appropriations they object. To say that a six-foot man needs no larger clothes than a small boy is to make one's self ridiculous. If you object to any particular appropriation, my Democratic friend, name it. But mike up your, nind that under Republican administrations state institutions will not be dwarfed or crippled, but will keep pace with the demands and development of the state.

will not be dwarfed or crippled, but will if the curtain is to be raised or a disgraceful chapter in our state history, it is because Dr. Jekyll gave way to Mr. Hyde?

Let us talk briefly of what Republicans found at the end of twenty-six years of Democratic control. They found practically an empty treasury and a deficit. The Democrats took a receipt for something over $1,100,000 trom Treasurer Kendall, but of what did that money consist? Instead of their last fiscal year, they had old debts and deficiences of over $240,000—the condition of the treasury and the knowledge that the state's obligations were not being paid, that some claims were being discounted an high as 50 per cent. The deficiency on printing along was over $45,000 which this administration had to pay.

Did Not Belong to the State, Of this $1,000,000 that they took Treasurer Hyde of the state of the propose of the state of the condition of the treasury and the knowledge that the state's obligations were not being paid, that some claims were being discounted an high as 50 per cent. The deficiency on printing along was over $45,000 which this administration had to pay.

Did Not Belong to the State, Of this $1,00,000 that they took Treasurer Kendall's receipt for $400,000 was considered the superintendent and shield the guilty. One Republican member voted against the superintendent and gave the Democratic members had violated their outside the superintendent in order to accomplish some sinister purpose. It would affort the guilty. All Voted He Was Not Guilty.

But they wouldn't and didn't. Not a bemocratic member voted that the su-perintendent was guifty, but all voted that he was not guilty. If 1 were a Democratic member of the Westen board Td make the late Democratic governor explain just who he means have violated their oaths of office and duty to the people.

It is my fortune and your fortune

It is my fortune and your fortune, kentlemen of the convention, to belong to a party which is of the people and tor the people and which has so legislated that we can truthfully say that "prosperity shines in every household." Our contrasted condition as a mation and as a state with that of four to six years ago is a most glorious one. Te Republican party in the state and nation has kept faith with the people and redeemed every promise made. We have proved true prophets and fulfilled to the letter our prophecies. Here in West Virginia, the only Republican state left in the south, our material prosperity is the marvel of the country, We have the richest and best state in the Union with a most splendid future just ahead. We are coming into our inheritance and our coal is becoming king; our lumber commands the markets; our oil illuminess the world, while our manufactured products circle the clobe. Mr. H. I. Myers, 100 Mulberry St., Newark, N. J., saye: ad all over my body. These soon broke out into sores So, J., says; "I was afflicted with a terrible blood disease, which was in apots at first, but afterwards at into sortes, and it is easy to imagine the suffering I endured. Before I became convinced that the doctors could do me no good I had spent a bundred dollars, which was really thrown away. I then tried various patent medicines, but they did not reach the disease. When I had finished rue first bottle of 8.8.1 was greatly improved, and was delighted with the result. The large, red splotches on my thest began to grow pater and smaller, and before long disappeared entirely. I regarded my lost serigist, became stronger, and my appetite improved. I was soon entirely well, and my skin as clear as a piece of glass."

Send for our Home Treatment Book, which contains valuable information about this disease, with complete directions for self-treatment. Our medical department is in charge of physicians who have made a life-time study of blood diseases. Don't kestiate to write for any information or advice wanted. We make no charge whatever for this.

Polash In some cases the external signs of Contagious Blood Poison are so slight that the victim is firmly within the grasp of the monster before the true nature of the disease is known. In other cases the blood is quickly filled with this poisonous virus and the avoilen glands, mucus patches in the month, sores on scalp, ulcers on tongue, sore throat, cruptions on skin, copper colored splotteles, and falling hair and eyebrows. Dectors attli prescribe mercuryand potash as the only cure for Blood Poison. These poisonous minerals never yet made a complete and permanent cure of Contagious Blood Poison. These powerful minerals produce mercurial heaving that the most offensive sores and there, causing the joints to stiffen and finger nails to drop off. Moreoury and potash make wrocks, not cures, and those who have been dozed with these drugs are never after free from aches and pain. S. S. s. acts in an entirely different manner, being a purely vegetable remedy; it forces the poison out of the system, and instead of tearing down, builds up and invigorates the general health. S. S. S. is the only antidote for this specific virus, and though pronounced incurable by the dectors, S. S. s. cau be relied upon to make a rapid, permanent cure. S. S. S. is one new, matted remedy; an experience of nearly fifty years has proven it a sure and unfailing cure for this disease. It is the only parely vegetable blood medicine known.

M. H. I. Myers, hes Mulberry Sh. Newerls, S. I., says: "I was afflicted with a terrible blood dispase, which was in spots at first, but afterwards of the most of the proposition of the proposition of the proposition of the system. Make
